MONDAY, MAY 27, 1861.

ISAAC M. KEELER, Editor.

Capt's Tillotson and Haynes have each got the quota of men they wanted to fill up their companies. They leave this morning on the 6 o'clock train for Camp Dennison.

Mr. Crowell had got about 50 men for the three years' service on Saturday evening. He thinks he will succeed in getting his complement of 100 men in a day or two.

Home Guards—Independent Guards.

Both of these companies were out on parade Saturday afternoon, making a fine appearance. The Home Guards were presented with a beautiful National Flag by the ladies of the village. Homer Everett, Esq., on behalf of the ladies made a few patriotic remarks. R. P. Buckland, Esq., for the Guards received the flag, and responded for the company returning their warmest thanks for the compliment paid them by the ladies, assuring them that its sacred folds should be preserved unsullied even at the cost of their lives, property and honor. A large concourse of the citizens from town and country were present. Capt. Pariah, with his gun squad and "Old Croghan" were on the ground.

DROWNED.—It pains us to record the fact that a little son of Charles Tyler's, aged about 4 years, was drowned in the race just above Mr. Down's & Co.'s mill on Saturday evening last. The little fellow was endeavoring to walk across a log that spans the race, when he slipped in, and was under the water some ten minutes before he was taken out, when life was found to be extinct. The funeral took place yesterday at 3 o'clock.

We would "suggest" to the editor of the Messenger, that when we want any "suggestions" from him as to the manner in which we shall conduct our business, or as to what we shall print, we will duly notifying him of the fact. Until he receives such notice, we would "suggest" that he pay more strict attention to what is termed the "Eleventh Commandment," which reads as follows: "Let every man mind his own business."

Our people are getting to be considerable military from practice and inclination. On Thursday, Friday and Saturday there were three recruiting officers busy at work enlisting soldiers. Saturday our village was all astir with military enthusiasm. Flags were flying, fife, drums and cannon made music, while the soldiers "kept step" to the same, for the honor of the flag which has made itself respected wherever it has waved.

JOHN S. GARDINER, an old resident of Sandusky county, residing in York township, died of Apoplexy at his residence on Friday morning last, aged 55 years. Mr. GARDINER was extensively known throughout the county, and had formerly been one of the Commissioners of this county. York township has thus lost by apoplexy within a short time, two of its most prominent and active men—Hon. F. Chapman and John S. Gardiner.

SOUTHERN HONOR!—A Mr. John G. Cooke, of New Orleans, has addressed a letter, through the papers of that city, to "Major Anderson," notifying him that the three notes of $4,500 each, together with the accumulated interest of $1,000, which he had executed to Maj. Anderson and which would be due and payable March, 1862, will not be paid. He repudiates them in toto, though preferring to hold the negroes for the purchase of which the notes were given, subject to order on return of the notes. The letter first reached Col. Anderson through the press.

We think if Gov. Jackson, of Missouri, intends establishing another camp for State troops at St. Louis, he should by all means change the general officer. It appears to be entirely too warm there for Frost!—Vicksburg Whig.

Saturday Night's Report.

Washington, May 24.—There were reports of fighting in the neighborhood of Arlington and Alexandria, but it proves to be a mistake.

The latter, however, were funeral minute guns—the former probably from camp fires.

The troops now have been ordered to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice. The utmost watchfulness on the part of the military authorities to guard against the approach of the secessionists is everywhere manifested.
